

THE ETERNAL LIGHT

Dramas based on Jewish literature, history and music. Sponsored by the Jewish Theological Seminary, and broadcast Sunday mornings/afternoons on NBC. Premiered on October 8, 1944, and as of 1992, the series was still being broadcast over the radio! During the summer, for many years, the program presented a series of dramas entitled "The Words We Live By." From April 20, 1958 to May 11, 1958 The Eternal Light broadcasted four special presentations celebrating Israel's tenth anniversary. The broadcasts of 1959 were rebroadcasts of previous scripts, the most popular plays previously presented, in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of the series. The Eternal Light was first heard from 12 to 12:30 pm, and later moved to 12:30 pm in the late forties, remaining in that time slot for many years.

Some scripts such as "Watchman, What of the Night?" described the last days of Isaac Rosenberg, the poet, who was killed in WWI. "An American Ballad" presented the story of Rabbi Henry Cohen. "Not Even Ten" featured a dramatization of Sodom and Gomorrah. "A Song for Queen Esther" was Morton Wishengrad's musical rendition of the biblical story. "The Return of Danny Miller" was a Veterans drama, repeated many times over the years.
